

Q Tell us the type of vehicle you were driving that day.

A I had several cars at that time. I had a Chrysler Sebring, a Chevrolet Cavalier, and a Ford Expedition. The day of the accident on I-64, I was in the Chevrolet Cavalier.

Q Do you still have the Chevrolet Cavalier?

A No. It was totaled in the accident. I do still have the Chrysler Sebring and the Ford Expedition. My wife drives the Ford Expedition.

Q About where on I-64 did the accident happen?

A It was on 64 right around where you turn off on Route 60. I put my signal on to get off on 60 and her Pontiac Grand Am hit me. I spun and ended up hitting two other cars, a Buick Century and a Nissan Pathfinder.

Q What was damaged on the Pontiac Grand Am?

A Her entire front end was torn up. The Buick Century wasn't damaged too bad, but the Nissan Pathfinder was totaled.

Q The accident report lists a Dodge Caravan as being involved in this accident.

A Well, I said a Buick, but maybe it's a Dodge. I'm not for sure.

Q Did you have your Chevrolet Cavalier repaired?

A I took it to a body shop on Route 23 in Ashland. It's the one there off I-64.

Q Do you remember the name of the shop?

A I think Superior Chevrolet-Buick.

Q Is that where you purchased the vehicle?

A I bought it at Hamilton Chevrolet on Route 7 in Ohio.

Q So that Chevrolet dealer was unable to repair the vehicle?

A Yes. They took it to a junk yard on Route 152.

Q Were you provided a rental car?

A Yes. I had a Toyota Camry.

Q How long did you drive the Camry?

A Until I bought a new car. I looked at a Honda Civic and a Subaru Outback. I decided to buy a Plymouth Voyager.

Q Why did you decide against the Honda Civic and the Subaru Outback? Why did you go with the Plymouth Voyager?

A My friend works at the dealership, and she got me a really good deal on the Voyager.

Q Are you still driving the Voyager today?

A Yes.

Q And where is the dealership that you bought the Plymouth Voyager?

A It's in Ashland on Winchester Avenue.

Q What is the name of that dealership?

A It's Kentucky Plymouth-Pontiac-Oldsmobile.
