

Final Consonants -SK
Did you ask me about the disk?
The task was more difficult than I anticipated.
She risked it for her children.
The desk is an antique.
The catcher threw off his mask at the game.
I saw him put the flask in his jacket.
It was almost dusk before the task was done.
I'm pretty sure the flask had whiskey in it.
They had a booth next to the kiosk at the mall.
The police will frisk you before you can enter.
The boy wore husky jeans.
What does this asterisk mean?
The defendant wore a mask while committing this crime.
They had to choose a casket upon his death.
Dusk is a nice time to go for a walk.
Lobster bisque was on the menu.
Will you risk it all?
The mosque held nightly meetings.
She will bask in the excitement of the day.
He had a slipped disc from pulling on the desk.
They whisked her away and frisked her.