

High Frequency Words

Sentences: Part 1

You have the ability to do it all.

Please be here by ten a.m.

Do you accept credit cards?

My car was totaled in the accident.

You can accomplish whatever you set your mind to.

I would like to open an account.

You can acknowledge my signature.

I live across the bridge.

My address has not changed.

Please administer the oath.

We need someone to administrate that plan.

The current administration is effective.

We have an advantage.

This will affect our class.

Will you sign an affidavit?

You were there after all.

Will you come here again?

It was my first time in an airplane.

Be at the airport two hours early.

That bar does serve alcohol.

I think he is an alcoholic.

It is almost time for your meeting.

She walked along the side of the road.

I am already tired of typing.

It is all right to ask questions.

Will you also get my coffee?

He was altogether rude.

Are you always this happy?

She is an American.

The announcement will be made shortly.

Are you ready for another round of drinks?

You may answer when you're ready.

Is there any way you can help me?

Do you know anybody that works there?

He changed my tire anyhow.

I don't want to eat there anymore.

Anyone who stays there is crazy.

I couldn't think of anything I needed.

I told him not to, but he did it anyway.

Do you know of anywhere I can buy that?

I rented my apartment last week.

Please note his appearance on the paper.

I do appreciate your help.
It was a token of appreciation.
His words were highly appropriate.
Can you give an approximate distance?
I passed the test in April.
We can argue all day about this.
Their argument could be heard down the street.
I live around the block.
Ask me anything.
See an associate about your purchase.
Our association will sponsor the event.
His speech will astonish you.
We will get started if you will give me your attention.
My attorney will take care of it for me.
The payment is due by the end of August.
I really want a new automobile.
Is this color available?
Which avenue will you take?
On average, I spend a lot of money.
Did anyone ever tell you, you're beautiful?
You did this because you wanted to.
Before I go, I want to thank you.
You are the nicest human being on earth.
Does this watch belong to you?
My brother will come here next month.
They removed a bullet from his leg.
Can I have one of your business cards?
Please be careful as you drive home.